Welcome...

The SAGE Rights Team is pleased to present a selection of our favourite titles for translation in 2013/2014!

SAGE publishes more than 800 books a year and offers a wide range of publications within the Humanities and Social Sciences disciplines. Above all, our editorial team is dedicated to quality content and our authors are well-respected worldwide for their expertise. In this catalogue, we are particularly proud to recommend An Introduction to the Philosophy of Management by Paul Griseri (p. 4) from our Business & Management list, The Signature of Power by Mitchell Dean (p. 27) from our Politics & International Relations list and Essential Biological Psychology by Jim Barnes (p. 31) from our Psychology list.

If you are a publisher and would like to receive updates on new titles, please provide your details with any subjects of interest to foreign-rights@sagepub.co.uk. Though some rights information can be found within the catalogue, please contact us directly to confirm the availability of rights in your language, request review copies and arrange option periods on titles.

These books only represent a small selection of our list so we invite you to visit our website or view our subject catalogues for more titles.

We look forward to working with you!

JUSTICE GLOBALISM
Ideology, Crises, Policy

Manfred Steger University of Hawai‘i and RMIT University, James Goodman University of Technology Sydney and Erin K Wilson University of Groningen

The book argues for the existence of an emergent Global Justice Movement ideology that needs to be distinguished from other more familiar social movement ideologies. It has its own distinctive core concepts and core claims that respond to a broad range of specific political issues. A brilliant systematic and empirically based analysis of a rapidly mutating reality
