

Contents

Thank You. Merci. Gracias. Xie Xie.	xv
About the Authors.	xvii

Introduction and What You Can Get Out of This Book xix

Why This Book?xix
Ten Reasons You Should Use This Book	xxi
How to Use This Toolkit	xxii

CHAPTER 1

How to Get Started: Planning Considerations for Bringing the Global to Your School 1

• Assess Your Starting Point1
• To Move Forward, Try Backward Planning.2
• Ten Questions for Starting to Plan Global-Themed Events3
• Theme Ideas for an International Day, Week, Month, or Year4
• Gain Support From Key Stakeholders6
▪ Administration	6
▪ Teachers and Staff.	7
▪ Parents.	10
▪ Community.	14
• Sample Timeline for Planning an International Event	15
• Concluding Reflection	18

CHAPTER 2

Things to Do: Look at All the Places We Can Go! 21

• Section 1: Schoolwide Crafts and Displays	23
▪ Diversity Quilt23

▪ Multicultural Paper Dolls	24
▪ Flags	24
▪ “Where in the World Is . . . ?”	25
▪ Traveling Mascot Display	25
▪ Multicultural Art Gallery	26
▪ Our Student Population on the Map	27
▪ Postcard Roundup	27
▪ Halls of Fame	28
▪ Peace Display	28
▪ Holidays Around the World Map and Calendar Bulletin Board	29
▪ Rotating Multimedia Display (books, movies, music, links in e-newsletters)	30
• Section 2: Incorporating Food	31
▪ Friendship Salad	31
▪ Global Cookbook	31
▪ International Bread Day	32
▪ International Potluck	32
▪ Oxfam World Meal	33
▪ Community Garden	34
▪ Lunchtime Around the World	35
▪ Accompany Themes With Food	36
▪ Fill (and Make!) Empty Bowls	36
• Section 3: Music, Movement, Sports, and Play	37
▪ Schoolwide World Cup	38
▪ International Game Day	38
▪ Student Performances	38
▪ Performances by Outside Groups	39
▪ Friday Music From Around the World	39
▪ Drumming Workshop	40
• Section 4: Global Fair/International Festival Activities	40
▪ Country Displays	40
▪ Cultural Fashion Show or Parade	42
▪ Passports/Stamps	42
▪ World Friend Bingo	43
▪ Movies for Classroom Discovery and Family Film Fun Events	44
▪ 25 Favorite Foreign Films for K–5!	45
▪ Show-and-Touch Tables	49
▪ Guess the Flag Game	50
▪ Exploring a Country Through the Five Senses	50
▪ Passport Day	51
• Section 5: Integrating Global Perspectives Into the School Environment Throughout the Year	52
▪ Video Chat With a Sister School	52
▪ Worldwide Cultural Swap Boxes	53
▪ Pen Pal Program	54
• Section 6: Everyday Foreign Language Exposure	55
▪ “My Place in the World” Projects	57
▪ Map the Settings of Books Read	57
▪ Daily Geography Trivia	58

- Exchange Student Panel58
- Speakers From Around the World59
- Multilingual Announcements62
- Incorporating Google Earth Into Lessons63
- Take a Google Lit Trip.64
- Geography Stars.64
- Instill Meaning Through Service and Giving65
- Concluding Reflection 65

CHAPTER 3

Infusing Global Learning Into Academic Subject Areas (With Special Consideration for Aligning Common Core Standards) 67

- Section 1: “Global Competence” in the Context of the Common Core 68
- Section 2: Language Arts. 72
 - Out of Eden Walk: An Example of Using One Topic to Spur Deeper Learning Through Common Core Standards76
 - More Tools to Help Enhance Global Awareness Through K-5 Reading and Writing79
- Section 3: Mathematics 83
 - 30+ Geography-Enhanced Math Projects85
- Section 4: Social Studies 90
 - Where to Find Global Lesson Plans With a Country or Culture Focus91
 - Online Games, Activities, and Apps92
- Section 5: Science. 94
- Section 6: Music. 100
- Section 7: Art 101
- Section 8: World Languages 103
 - Language-Learning Programs and Materials 106
 - More Tools to Help Language Learners 109
- Concluding Reflection 111

CHAPTER 4

Technology Tools to Connect With the World: Unlocking Global Education 2.0 113

- Section 1: Social Media (Twitter, Facebook, Edmodo, and More). 115
 - Twitter. 116
 - Facebook and Edmodo 118
 - Other Education-Based Social Networks. 119
- Section 2: Class Blogs and Wikis 119
 - Blogs 119
 - Wikis 121
- Section 3: Videoconferencing (Using Skype and Google+) 122
 - Technology-Enhanced Communication and Collaboration 124
 - Tips for Setting Up a Successful School Partnership (or “Twinning Program”) . . 125

- Lessons in Global Partnership: One School's Story 128
- Maximize Inclusion During Video Chats—Skype Jobs Chart 129
- Getting the Most From Your Skype/Google+ Calls 131
- Section 4: Online Clearinghouses for Lesson Plans 131
 - Eighteen Clearinghouses for Global Lesson Plans. 132
- Section 5: Digital Multimedia in the Classroom 136
 - Global Photography 136
 - Global Videos and Audio Clips. 137
 - Tapping Into News Outlets From Around the World 138
- Section 6: Global Education Professional Development Opportunities 140
 - Join a Ning 140
 - The Global Education Conference—Free, Online, Flexible. 141
 - Get Inspired by a Short Talk—via TED; or a Lesson—via TED.Ed 142
 - Use Twitter to Grow in Your Teaching Practice 144
 - Global Education Professional Development and Training Resources 146
 - University-Affiliated Professional Development Focused on Global Ed 148
 - Travel Opportunities for Educators at Reduced or Zero Cost 151
 - Additional Reading for Global Education Professional Development 152
- Concluding Reflection 154

CHAPTER 5

Charitable Giving and Service: Ready, Set, Make a Difference! 157

- Section 1: Thinking About Service-Learning. 158
- Section 2: Engaging in Service: Who, What, Where, Why, and How. 159
- Section 3: Fundraising With a Purpose: Resource Building That's a Win-Win-Win. . . 163
- Section 4: Amazing! Examples Highlighting What It Looks Like When Kids Make a Difference Globally. 164
 - Global Grade 3 and Pennies for Peru 165
 - Water.org and a Pinterest Board 167
 - Healthy Kids for a Healthy World: Rachel's Walk for Water 168
 - A Class Wiki Expands Learning and Brings Technology to School Children in Haiti 169
 - Molly Otieno and a Flipcam 170
 - An Elementary School's Race Against Hunger. 171
 - KidKnits 172
 - Flag Pins to Help Victims of Natural Disasters 173
 - Girl Scouts World Thinking Day Participants Launch a Bigger Project 174
 - Deliver a Message to a World Leader. 174
 - Sleeping in a Box to Raise Awareness on Homelessness. 176
 - Free Rice 177
 - Go Meatless on Mondays! 177
 - Andrew in Ghana Helps Kids in Somalia 177
 - A 5-Year-Old Girl and the Power of Nets. 177
 - Little Red Wagon—The Movie and the Cause. 178
 - Video Games to Play Virtually, Make a Difference Actually 179
 - Take Your Child to the Meeting—And See What Sticks 180
 - Empty Bowls—Where Art Fights Hunger 180

- Upgrade Your Bike, Help More Kids Get to School, and Engage in Purposeful Work 181
- One School’s Culture of Service-Learning 183
- Treat the Earth With Care—Together 185
- Section 5: 12 Take-Aways From Awesome Kids Changing the World for the Better . . 185
- Concluding Reflection 187

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES 191

Printable Global Citizen Passport Template 192

Printable “Where Are You From?” World Map Activity 197

Geography Stars Sample Flyer 199

Multicultural Book List: A Few Hundred of Our Favorites 201

Index 217

